[REDACTED] Between 7 and 31 October, intensive activity was observed in the installation. Troops observed mostly received basic training. Instruction on guns and driving practice with tanks was no longer observed after 10 October. On and after 12 October, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets were repeatedly observed in the terrain receiving advanced infantry combat training. On 9 October, a column of 10 trucks, occupied by troops and towing 4 ZIS-3 field guns; and a field kitchen left the installation toward Rohrbeck. The gun barrels had a wide strip chalked on. Source did not observe the return of the vehicles.

4. In the afternoon on 25 October, 14 four-wheel BA-64 armored scout cars and 1 sedan were loaded on 7 four-axle flatcars [REDACTED] were loaded on 4 two-axle flatcars at the Jueterbog railroad station near Brueckenstrasse. Troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with artillery insignia were seen in 9 converted boxcars. Another shipments of 6 converted boxcars and about 10 two-axle and four-axle flatcars, which were empty, was seen at the Jueterbog railroad station in the evening of the same day.
